ROBERT LEE MORRIS)

NOTICE OF PROPOSED LIVING SITUATION

During the arraignment and detention hearing held on October 7, 2021, this Court requested more information from Mr. Morris regarding his possible living situations should he be granted pretrial release. Undersigned counsel was also instructed to coordinate with United States Probation to schedule home visits and evaluations of the possible residences. Unfortunately, despite repeated calls to United States Probation Officer Heather Edwards, the evaluations have not been completed. Mr. Morris respectfully shares with the Court his two possible living situations as follows:

1. Mr. Morris would be able to reside with Kelsey Webster sy 315 North 7th Street, Marietta, Ohio 45750; which is just across the border from Wood County, West Virginia. Ms. Webster is the mother of Mr. Morris' two children and Mr. Morris could reside in the home with Ms. Webster and their two minor children. Ms. Webster has installed a landline telephone in preparation for Mr. Morris' move and is prepared for Probation's home visit and to make adjustments should Probation recommend adjustments for Mr. Morris to move in.

2. Alternatively, Mr. Morris would be able to reside with his parents, Richard and Janice Morris, at 45 North Meadowlark Drive, Williamstown, West Virginia 26187. Mr. and Mrs. Morris have installed a landline at their home in preparation for Mr. Morris's move-in, the telephone number is +1 (681) 661-0406. Mr. and Mrs. Morris are prepared for Probation to conduct a home evaluation and make adjustments as necessary so that their son may be permitted to reside with them.

Mr. Morris therefore respectfully requests that this Court review the possible arrangements and either order US Probation to conduct further investigation or make its decision regarding pretrial release accordingly.
